For all purposes of this contract force majeure is defined as an irresistible force that prevents the Carrier from performing its obligations hereunder, including by way of illustration but not limited to, attacks by armed men, assault during carriage, theft, robbery, or any other similar act by third parties. The parties hereto specifically agree that in such cases the Carrier's filing of a

223. Maximum payload to transit across Mexican territories (Carrier and Merchant haulage) shall be as

RECEIVED by the Carrier from the Shipper in apparent good order and condition (unless otherwise noted herein) the total number or quantity of containers or other packages or units indicated above by the Merchant for carriage, subject to all the terms hereof (including the terms on page one) and tariff for the relevant trade, from the place of receipt or the port of loading, whichever applicable, to the port of discharge or place of delivery, whichever applicable. The rights and liabilities arising according to the terms hereof shall (without prejudice to any rule of common law and status) become binding between the Carrier and Consignee as if this agreement has been made between them and the Shipper guarantees on reception of this Waybill that he has accepted it on his own behalf, on behalf of the Consignee and the Owner of the Goods, and warrants that he has authority to do so.

All claims and actions arising between the Carrier and the Merchant in relation with the contract of Carriage evidenced by this Waybill shall exclusively be brought before the Tribunal de Commerce de Marseille and no other Court shall have jurisdiction with regards to any such claim or action.
